cleaning crud up in the kitchen as we sing a long.

Trill a cheery tune in the tub as you scrub a stubborn mildew stain; pluck a hair-ball from the shower drain to the gay refrain of a happy working song.

We'll keep singing without fail; otherwise we'd spoil it.

Hosing down the garbage pail and scrubbing up the toilet! Oh, how we all enjoy letting loose with a little "la da dum dum dum" while we're emptying the vacuum. It's such fun to hum a happy working song, hmm, a happy working song. Oh, how strange a place to be till Edward comes for me! My heart is sighing. Still, as long as I am here, I guess a new experience could be worth trying. Hey! Keep trying! You can do a lot when you've got such a happy working tune to hum while you're sponging up the soapy scum.

We adore each filthy chore that we determine.

So, friends, even though you're vermin, we're a happy working throng.

Singing as we fetch the detergent box for the smell-y shirts and the stinky socks. Sing along. If you cannot sing, then hum along as we're finishing our happy working song.

(Spoken:) Wasn't this fun?

How do you show her you love her?
How does she know that you really... really... truly... love her?

How does she know that you love her? How do you show her you love her?

How does she know that you really, really, truly love her?

It's not enough to take the one you love for granted.
You must remind her, or she'll be inclined to say: "How do I know he loves me?"

How do I know he's mine?"
Well, does he leave a little note to tell you you are on his mind?

Send you yellow flowers when the sky is gray?

Hey.

He'll find a new way to show you a little bit every day.
